“OSHA Compliance to Patient Compliance”

Presented by: Tom Terry, Axion Consulting

The big picture for Dental Compliance has changed forever; there is a new standard the Dental Profession must set – “Patient Compliance”

- Tom Terry

There is more to compliance and regulations than just OSHA. Dental Offices that focus only on OSHA are missing the Big Picture and will not survive. You and your staff will gain precise how-to instructions to move YOUR office from OSHA Compliance to Patient Compliance, from surviving to thriving.

As a result of taking this course, you will learn:

- ❖ Why most Dental Offices fail inspections
- ❖ The nuts and bolts of an OSHA inspection
- ❖ Creating a “Patient Compliance” message
- ❖ Making Central Sterilization the “heart” of the office
- ❖ Why patients are skeptical of the Dental Profession
- ❖ Why patient safety is more important than staff safety
- ❖ Simple steps to becoming an expert in Infection Control
- ❖ Why “Patient Compliant” surpasses government compliance

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: About Your Speaker

Tom Terry – President and Founder of Axion Consulting, is a dental compliance expert who provides Dentists the expertise and guidance needed to bring their practice into compliance with not only OSHA, Dental Board and other key regulations, but with insurance company’s requirements as well.

Tom, with over 28 years of experience, possesses the knowledge needed to handle today's complex compliance issues. His ability is squarely backed by real world experiences gained as a field inspector, investigator, trainer, and consultant.

Tom, a prolific writer, has authored several business books, compliance manuals, training courses, and an array of publications. He has also produced a variety of software programs, audio cassettes programs, and interactive training systems.

In addition, Tom writes articles on a variety of topics such as OSHA, dental compliance, workplace safety, business ethics, staff development, and risk management, for several local and national publications.

Tom keeps an active speaking schedule as well, presenting seminars, workshops, lectures, and keynote addresses at local, regional, and national levels annually.
